

ABSOLUTELY the quietest week of any season in many years was the one just passed. Only one large event marred the stillness and very few smaller affairs occurred. Had it not been for the clever amateur productions to which a number of local society folk were interested there would have been nothing to do in a social way. Nor does the social horizon show any great events coming this way in the near future. The social dullness is causing much comment among the society people, but there seem to be none among them willing to take the initiative and start something. The young men say there are to be no assemblies, and although something will doubtless be invented to take their place, it is high time some one was going about it. Doubtless the reason for the lack of large events is the fact that Salt Lake has been becoming more and more divided in its society sets for some time and nearly all the affairs to be given are of the small and early order. The teas given by Mrs. Walker during last month, the small affairs at the Marshall home, the informal suppers at some of the favorite apartments are samples of what may be expected with such a number of distinct sets in a place of this size. And, all told, they are the real social affairs. Perhaps the Amelia Palace will be the scene of considerable gaiety during the season, but there will probably be little after there till after the holidays.

Mrs. T. B. Lewis announces the engagement of her daughter, Maud, to Mr. J. Ledgerwood Craig of the Oregon Short Line freight office. The exact date for the marriage has not been set, but it will take place some time late in January.

One of the largest affairs of the coming week will be the tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert in compliment to Miss Agatha Berkhoe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb will entertain at dinner tonight at their home.

Mr. Harry Roberts will entertain a few friends at a supper at his apartments this evening.

Miss Ruth Knapik entertained a number of the girls yesterday afternoon at an informal Kensington. Later the men came in and tea was served and a few hours passed pleasantly in conversation.

Mrs. W. T. Benson entertained about thirty friends at her home yesterday afternoon. The game played was euchre, and the event was most informal and enjoyable.

Mrs. George Haslam, who has been in the city for the past few weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dorn, left yesterday for her home in Fremont, Neb. Mrs. George Dorn accompanied her.

Instead of the usual card party next Tuesday afternoon the Jewish ladies will give a luncheon in the B. B. rooms, to which all friends are invited.

On Thursday evening last a number of friends of Frank J. S. Fowler called at his home, 309 North Second West, and very agreeably surprised him, the occasion being his twentieth birthday. The evening was enjoyably spent in singing and dancing until the "wee sma' hours of the morning." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler, Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fowler, Mrs. James D. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell, Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Price, Mr. Henry McKeen, and Misses Isabelle Fowler, Kate Hayes, Rose Jenkins, Maud Frame, Margaret Burrill, Maud Jensen, Lilly Price and Maggie Evans; Messrs. Frank J. S. Fowler, Jack M. Fowler, Joseph Fowler, Willie Fowler, Jack H. Marshall, Arthur Hayes, Fred Smith, Will Clayton, Laurence Pratt, Ralph Sanders, Pete Morris, Jos. Falsetto, Thomas McKeen, Willie McKeen, Harold Craig, Don Lochrie and Ray Booth.

The members of the Autumn club were entertained at the residence of Mrs. Charles Rader on Fifth East street Friday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Birdie Sheets. Those participating in the affair were Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Edwin S. Sheets, Mrs. John Emms, Mrs. Moroni Iverson, Mrs. Albert Paul and Mrs. Alfred Derick.

The marriage of Miss Emily Brennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Brennan of this city, and Frank G. Putnam of Saginaw, was solemnized at St. Mark's cathedral Monday Nov. 23, at noon, Dean Eddie officiating. Miss Nell Houghton of Spanish Fork attended the bride. Harry Brennan was best man and the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents. Only relatives and close friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Putnam left for Chicago. They will make their home at Saginaw.

Mrs. Charles Loring and Miss Loring entertained Tuesday afternoon at euchre. The room was decorated with ferns and palms. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. C. Slade, Mrs. W. V. Rice and Miss Hazel Pond. About thirty-five friends enjoyed Mrs. and Miss Loring's hospitality.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hamilton and Robert Park took place last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Heath. The wedding was a quiet one, the ceremony being witnessed by only the relatives. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. N. Brooks, of the M. E. church. The bride wore a travelling gown of pale gray cloth. The groom is a young stockman of Wyoming, but the young people will take their home in this city. They will be at home after the holidays at Sixteenth South and State streets.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reeves will entertain the Cup and Saucer club at their home, 75 P street, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lulu S. Mayne will sing "Plains of Peace," by Barnard, as an offering at the Hill Methodist church this morning, and for the evening service, "Abide With Me," by S. Liddle.

Mrs. Ellis Drake has returned from a visit with friends in the east, but will be at home this evening.

Mrs. A. C. Smith is expected from Kansas City Tuesday.

Mrs. McMillan entertained the members of the Plate club at her home on First and O streets last evening.

Mrs. E. C. Coffin entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot, who left Friday for Washington.

Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag returned to Ogden last evening, after spending a day with Judge and Mrs. Bowman.

The ball to be given Thursday evening by the Congregation Montefiore promises to be one of the successful dancing parties of the season.

Mrs. W. S. Hawkes and Miss Helen Hawkes were guests of Mrs. E. M. Best on Wednesday.

Mrs. Agnes Osborne has engaged the services of Herr Otto Mejewski, the talented violinist and teacher, to conduct a class in musical history and interpretation. This class will convene at her studio, 445 South Main street, every alternate Monday evening at 8 o'clock, beginning Dec. 14, 1903. After each discourse Herr Mejewski and Mrs. Osborne will render appropriate illustrations on the violin and piano.

The Juvenile Mandolin club of the Twentieth ward, under the direction of Theodore Best, performed in a charming manner at the conference of the Primary association held in the Assembly hall yesterday. Margaret, Gertrude and O. D. Romney with Lauren Gibbs and Vernon Theriot made up the club.

The University Glee club held a very enthusiastic meeting yesterday. R. Jacobson was elected president and Alfred Best, Jr., secretary.

At the regular meeting of the Salt Lake Thistle Social club, held Thursday evening, Dec. 3, in its hall, a large amount of business was transacted, after which officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: David Henderson, president; Nicol Hood, vice president; Hannah Whyte, secretary; Elizabeth Stevens, assistant secretary; Simon Grieve, treasurer; Mrs. William Dunlap, chaplain; William Gray, sergeant-at-arms. The above officers will be installed at the first regular meeting in January, 1904.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Republican club will be held tomorrow with Mrs. Johnson, 251 Third East street.

A delightful surprise party was given in honor of Charles Stringfellow at his home Friday evening. There was very fine music rendered by Mrs. Brooks, and also some very nice songs. The features of the evening were games and music. Refreshments were served. The guests were Lillian Youngberg, Alice Brooks, Florence Frankland, Beale Brooks, May Marsh, Eva Peyer, Dora Stringfellow, Lizzie Keddington, Ada Marsh.

On Dec. 15 the Billie club will give a dancing party at Christensen's.

One of the social events of the week was the masquerade ball given by the Young Ladies' Hwaatha club in Thompson's hall Thursday evening. The evening proved such a success that more will be given in the near future. Messrs. Lunn and Hammel were kept busy at the door taking up the password. One hundred and fifty invitations were issued and accepted.

One of the delightful events of the week was a card party given in honor of the Bonolux club by Miss Lillian Farrington at her home, 559 Third street, sixty-three being the game of the evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. Coulam, Mr. Jensen and Miss Lena Sheller. Miss Farrington was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Thomas Hodder and Miss Karna Thatcher. At a late hour the guests retired to the lightly decorated dining room, where light refreshments were served.

The J. G. W.'s will hold a Kensington next Thursday afternoon. An informal programme will also be given. Mrs. W. E. Critzer of 127 N street will entertain the club.

The Christensen informal soiree of last Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable affair. Several private parties were arranged for the evening, among them most of the principals of the "Cinderella" company. Next Wednesday the members of the Billie club will attend in a body.

Members of the Good Time club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown on Wednesday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. James Dinwiddie, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Needham, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. S. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown, Miss Alice Needham and the Misses Brown. Sixty-three was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Brown and Ed Needham. Delicious refreshments were served, after which the club was reorganized. The next meeting of the club will be held on Dec. 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor.

OGDEN.

A social event in which the gentlemen of both Ogden and Salt Lake were much interested is the forthcoming meeting of the Commercial club of Salt Lake, Dec. 11. A large number of the members of the Weber club are to go down from this city as the banquet is to be given in honor of the establishment of reciprocal relations between the business men's organizations of the two chief commercial centers of the state. Invitations are sent to members of both clubs and each one is empowered to invite not to exceed two other guests.

The first of the series of elaborate parties which has been planned by the members of the Wednesday Night Dancing club was given last Wednesday night in Dignan's hall in the Kiesel block. The affair surpassed the most sanguine expectations of those having in charge, and the throng of guests were delighted with the arrangements. The series planned for the winter season are parties on the following dates: Jan. 6 and 20, Feb. 3 and 17, March 2 and 16.

The wedding of Miss Letitia Richards and Robert L. Burton, was solemnized Wednesday in the temple at Salt Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Burton left the afternoon for California on the Overland Limited, and will be at home in Ogden to their many friends after Jan. 1 at 524 Twenty-fourth street, a number of "showers" and other delightful parties were given during the week preceding the wedding in honor of the popular and accomplished bride. Mr. Burton is one of the employees of the First National bank, and a young man of energy, industry and ability. Misses Mattie Wattis, Eva Farr and Verna Bowman returned Monday to the Agricultural college at Logan.

The Rathbone Sisters were entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Eklund.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. G. L. Wade and Miss Rae E. Woodcock entertained in honor of Miss Lillian Richards and Lizzie Dee—a linen shower for Miss Richards and china for Miss Dee. The party was a complete surprise on the young ladies, as neither knew they were to be the victims of the affair. The rooms were beautifully festooned in pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums. The color scheme was pink and white, and the decorations in hearts. Each guest was presented with carnations and the place cards were pink and white hearts, with an appropriate toast. Very dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Wade and Miss Woodcock, assisted by Mesdames Peerman and Kittle. Miss Richards was the recipient of some very beautiful linen. The china received by Miss Dee was very dainty, the greater part of it being hand-painted. The invited guests were Mesdames C. C. Richards, Thos. D. Dee, Maude Dee, Porter, Mamie Richards, Mack, Peerman, Koerner, E. S. Miss Lillian Fowler will leave for about a week for California, where she will be the guest of Miss Juanita Kay at Sacramento.

A delightful social function of the week was the "at home" given last Wednesday by Mrs. Patrick Healy and Miss Healy. Their beautiful home on Jefferson avenue was the scene of a most enjoyable evening. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, who were assisted by Miss Loretta Whalen and Miss Bell Healy and Miss Maud Patterson. Those present were Mesdames J. A. Whalen, H. C. Spencer, Bell T. S. Fitzgerald, Scott, Hansen, Conroy, Kuhn, Kiesel, Don Maguire, Conish, Sigelov, Tuckett, Brick, T. A. Fitzgerald.

The W. C. T. U. met with a good attendance at the residence of Mrs. George Craig in Nob Hill. Mrs. Faulkner, the vice president, presided. Mrs. Wallace conducted devotional exercises. Reports of committees were received. Considerable discussion in regard to the new edition of the constitution was held. The following papers were read and more or less discussed: "Small Things," by Mrs. Miller; "His Beer a Temperance Drink," by Mrs. Tiffan; "The Woman's Cause," by Mrs. McKee. One new member was admitted. Adjourned to meet at the residence of Mrs. Faulkner, 1900 Grant avenue, Dec. 16, 1903.

Society is already beginning to discuss the forthcoming annual ball and banquet of the Weber club. The date of the event has not yet been decided. Dec. 21 is favored by a large number.

PROVO.

The Elks' ladies' reception took place on Thursday afternoon at the Elks' club rooms. It was one of the society events of the season. The beautiful decorations added very much to the beauty of the scene. As the guests were ushered into the main hall they were entranced by the gorgeous surroundings and the cozy appearance of the spacious rooms. Cards were indulged in until 4:30, when the Mandolin and guitar club rendered some charming melodies while the refreshments were being served. The colors—purple and white—were carried out in the dainty vases set on fine doilies amid the china, cut glass and silver.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it, and I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best remedy for the need of thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly, RRS. JOSE A. BRITAIN.

The "American Beauty"

It is easy to recognize beauty, but difficult to produce it, and when one admires a production which can rightly be called artistic, a silent admiration must go out to the one who conceived the design.

Down at Leysons we are "taking off our hats" to one whom we never saw, the designer of the "American Beauty" Toilet Ware.

This design is without doubt a triumph in harmony and grace, is made only in one quality of heavy sterling silver with French gray finish, and consists of the following pieces: Hair Brush, Cloth Brush, Velvet Brush, Mirror, Comb, Powder Box, Salve Box, Nail File, Shoe Buttoner, Cuticle Knife, Nail Polisher, Tooth and Nail Brushes, and will be sold complete or in part.

It is unlike the common toilet sets sold by most jewelers and gives the purchaser the satisfaction of having something not common in every household.

By securing the exclusive sale of it in our city we control its distribution and have decided to sell but five sets in Salt Lake, thus guaranteeing that it will never be common.

Those who intend buying should make their selections now. We will hold them until Christmas for reliable parties.

As a special sale item, we will sell this week a beautiful French gray sterling silver Brush, Comb and Mirror in case, for $10, reduced from $15. The same Brush and Comb in case for $4.50, reduced from $7.

Our display of toilet ware in ivory
